

Create some scrappy rows using colourful squares of leftovers. Add a few, (1-3) white scraps to the mix. Strips need to finish at 13" long and 1 1/4" wide after pressing.

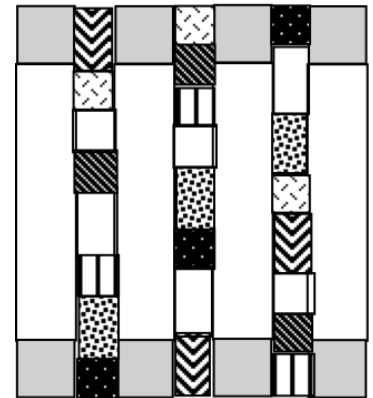

Cut white fabric: one rectangle 8" by 9".

Cut grey fabric: two strips 2 1/2" by 8".
two strips 2 1/2" by 13"

1. Stitch one 8" strip of grey to each 8" side of the white square. Press toward the grey.
2. Cut this block into four sections. You will be cutting four strips, each 2" wide by 13" Cut with a ruler and cutting tool.

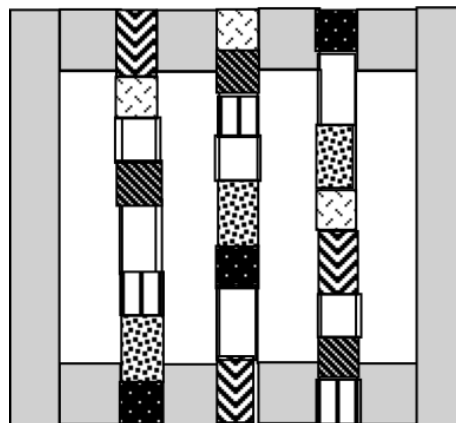

3. Insert the three scrappy strips by stitching each to a white/grey strip. Add the last white/grey strip to complete this part of the block. Use 1/4" seams.

4. Press seams away from the scrappy strips so it will lie flat.
5. Stitch the remaining two grey strips across each edge of white/grey, making one large square. Press.

6. Trim to 12 1/2".
